

MANU DELAGO, ANNA F. AND BILDERBUCH AT THE REEPERBAHN FESTIVAL 2014 IN HAMBURG

6 Austrian acts performing from September 17-20 at Germany's biggest club festival

Vienna, 09/11/2014 - The performances of the Hang player Manu Delago, the multiple Amadeus Austrian Music Award winner Anna F. and the Viennese band Bilderbuch are definite highlights of this year's Reeperbahn Festival in Hamburg. Also joining the incredible Austrian lineup are young singer/songwriter James Hersey and rock newcomers ONEFOURSIX.

For the ninth time Germany's biggest club festival will take place from September 17-20 and attract music fans and industry professionals from all over the world to Hamburg. "We're very pleased that these fantastic artists will be representing the Austrian pop music scene in Hamburg," said Franz Hergovich and Tatjana Domany of Austrian Music Export - the joint initiative of mica - music austria and the Austrian Music Funds.

Under the motto „Austrian Heartbeats“, the Austrian Music Export invites all festival delegates to a very special Viennese breakfast (Saturday, September 20) with an exclusive performance by 5/8erl in Ehr'n! With their album "Yes We Does", 5/8erl in Ehr'n combine Viennese soul with heavy rocksteady and melancholic waltzes, and create a beautifully unsettling reflection of themselves, the world and the country they call home: Austria.

Representatives of the international music industry are welcome to join the Austrian Music Export team for some delicious Melange (coffee) and Sachertorte (cake), while listening to great Viennese music, networking, making new acquaintances, and enjoying the last festival day in a relaxed atmosphere. The Austrian presence at the festival is supported by AKM/GFÖM, FAMA/WKO and Advantage Austria.
