

REEPERBAHN FESTIVAL 2014: AUSTRIAN HEARTBEATS

ARTIST: JAMES HERSEY

ALBUM: CLARITY

Already celebrated for several years in alternative circles, the 26-year-old James Hersey now presents himself in a new light. Just the right amount of beats and synths elevate his already impressive vocal- and songwriting qualities to the next level.

In 2013 his single "Don't Say Maybe" pushed its way to Top 5 in the FM4 Charts, and stirred the interest of industry professionals from LA to Berlin. With his creativity on stage and in the studio this young solo artist promises much success in the coming year.

Though James Hersey produces and writes exclusively on his own, select collaborations with such artists as Manu Delago (Björk), Jack Lawless (Jonas Brothers), and Left Boy underline his diversity and eagerness to work with contemporary creatives. After touring with and supporting the likes of Sebastian Lind, Milky Chance, Seeed and Will.i.Am, the young Austro-American musician will release his long awaited debut album „Clarity“ in 2014.
