

EUROSONIC FESTIVAL 2014: FOCUS ON AUSTRIA

ARTIST: GUGABRIEL

SINGLE: SALVATION, ADAM & EVE

SHORT INFO:

Her full name is Gudrun Gabriele Liemberger, but you can call her GuGabriel. She was educated in classical music from a very young age and learned to play violin, guitar, piano and flute before heading off to the Conservatory of Vienna. She spent time in both the United States and Great Britain, before heading off to Berlin to learn acting in a theatre company. Back home in Vienna she went back to music and started her solo career as a singer-songwriter in 2010. Before that she was leader of the band "SheSays" - the group received an „Amadeus Austrian Music Award“ (2006) and toured the with likes of Seal, Deep Purple, Xavier Naidoo or Bryan Adams.

Her album "Anima(l)" was released in 2011 and marked a first success in her career as a solo singer. Her next single „Salvation“ (2012) stayed for more than three months in the Austrian Top 40 charts and reached the impressive number of more than 400,000 clicks on YouTube. GuGabriel about her song: "For me the song Salvation means the start of a journey, a journey to love, light and truth. Just today, in a world full of new challenges it is important to believe that we can reach common and individual happiness – and to trust in ourselves that we are able to guide our lives back on the right way. My song has the aim to encourage all people to do so."

Her second single „Adam & Eve“ was released in December 2012 and is still running on heavy rotation. „The topics of my new single are love, satisfaction, happiness, confidence – and it's also about the feeling of letting ourselves go“, said GuGabriel. "We should always realize the importance of warmth between people and what's really important in life – love."

In 2013 GuGabriel was announced as one of the winners of the 2014 European Border Breakers Awards (EBBA), that celebrate the best new pop acts in Europe which have achieved cross-border success.
