AUSTRIAN ARTISTS AT REEPERBAHN FESTIVAL 2018

A total of nine Austrian artists – including Cari Cari, Dives, Jugo Ürdens & EINFACHSO, Yukno and Flut - will perform in Hamburg to represent Austria at the 13th edition of Germany’s largest club festival.

From 19-22 September 2018, the Reeperbahn Festival will again become one of the most important meeting places for the music industry worldwide. The festival presents more than 800 events spanning a range of genres in locations around Hamburg’s Reeperbahn and boasts a broad spectrum of emerging artists. With a wide range of up-and-coming Austrian talent performing at the festival, international trade visitors, agencies and journalists will have a chance to acquire a comprehensive overview of the diversity and quality that the current Austrian music scene has to offer.

FESTIVAL KICK-OFF WITH AUSTRIAN HEARTBEATS

To kick things off, AME will present an AUSTRIAN HEARTBEATS reception and showcase on the opening night of the festival. For the first time, FUTURESFUTURE & SEAYOU RECORDS host a joint label night on Thursday, September 20.

AUSTRIAN HEARTBEATS AT RBF18

Wed, Sept. 19, Indra, Live: CARI CARI, TENTS, DIVES, AT PAVILLON

On Wednesday, September 19, at the legendary club Indra, Austrian Music Export in cooperation with Advantage Austria and Waves Vienna invites international delegates to mix and mingle with members of the Austrian music business. A networking reception and four live shows provide the perfect opportunity to get to know the current Austrian music scene.

FUTURESFUTURE & SEAYOU RECORDS NIGHT

Thu, Sept. 20, Nochtwoche, Live: JUGO ÜRDENS & EINFACHSO, NAKED CAMEO, FLUT, THE CRISPIES, Mister Me (Ger)

On Thursday, September 20, two of Vienna’s busiest labels – Futuresfuture and Seayou Records – present a cross section of their roster at Reeperbahn Festival. Futuresfuture was founded in 2017 by rapper Gerard and Ilias Dahimene, who in turn founded Seayou Records in 2006. Both labels have a broad and open A&R approach that puts the quality of the artistic work before genres or trends. Providing a high level of professionalism, they aim to supply artists with a platform they can use to unfold their creativity.

BUT THERE IS EVEN MORE

Already among the first artist announcements, Austrian electro-pop duo YUKNO will perform in Hamburg. The Styrian duo is a band that approaches electro pop from a slightly different and somewhat darker angle and definitely seems to be destined for greater things. The Graz-based PETROL GIRLS (UK) will bring their post-hardcore sounds to Hamburg with the help of drummer Zock, the singer of Austrian punk band Astpai. LOMBOY (BE) is the new project of Tanja Frinta (of Lonely Drifter Karen fame), born in Austria and currently based in Brussels, Belgium. And Laura Landerott’s “sunken psych soul” project RÁN (DE) sees the multi-instrumentalist and Ja, Panik member team up with guitar player Yair Karelic.

From 19 – 22 September 2018, the REEPERBAHN FESTIVAL will present more than 900 events spanning a range of genres in locations around Hamburg’s Reeperbahn. Since its debut in 2006, the Reeperbahn Festival has grown to become one of the most important meeting places for the music industry worldwide, and, as Europe’s largest club festival, it boasts a broad spectrum of emerging and more established artists. In addition to some 600 concerts by international artists held in a wide variety of venues, the festival programme includes events in the fields of fine art, film, and literature. The Reeperbahn Festival conference programme is designed for professionals active in the music and creative digital industries and features sessions, showcases, networking events, or awards ceremonies. The festival’s partner country in 2018 is France.
